REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

"Welcome to Woodruff Middle School, where the best get better" is the phrase that greeted nearly 765 students every morning as the student body gathered to begin each day of the 2004-2005 school year. This guiding principle organized each day as students were challenged to follow directions, be prepared, and do their best. Woodruff Middle School has a heart for the unique emotional, social, and academic needs of the This nurturing environment where students work within teams of middle-schooler. teachers sets the stage for success. With strong support from the Woodruff community, parents, faculty, and staff, Woodruff Middle School students improve from best to even better. Academic awards were numerous as 95 students were inducted into the Junior Beta Club, and 8th graders posted a 100% passing rate on the Algebra I and English I end-of-course exams. Fifteen students were recognized as Junior Scholars on the basis of outstanding PSAT scores, and three were identified for this 8th grade honor as seventh graders on the basis of exceptional SAT scores. At the Academic Awards Ceremony, 169 students from the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades were honored for maintaining a yearly average of 93 or better. Student fine art accomplishments included three students winning Scholastic Arts Awards recognition and one winning first place at the African American Young Artist Show. The band and chorus received excellent ratings at the Carowinds Choral Festival, and Honor Band students also earned an excellent rating at the Concert Band Festival. In athletics, the 8th grade football team won the Peachtree Conference Championship, the boys Basketball team finished third in the standings, and 13 students were named All-Conference. One middle school wrestler placed 4th at the state meet. Interschool activities and events included Junior Beta Club peer tutoring, Career Dress-Up Day, an after-school homework club, extended-day Academic Focus groups, an Accelerated Reader program conducted by the media specialist, and 303 students selected as "Student of the Month" by teaching teams. Additionally, Woodruff Middle School hosted the community Relay for Life event at the track, the District four Rotary Night of Music, and performances by the Spartanburg County Arts Partnership Muse Machine organization. Woodruff Middle School is committed to serving the needs of our community and its students by educating them academically, socially, and through extracurricular activities. In this school climate of high expectations- coupled with structure and a caring, supportive staff- students lived up to the motto: Welcome to Woodruff Middle School, where the best get better!
